Fragment of a manuscript page with two columns of text in a Gothic script. The text is heavily obscured by dark ink blotches and physical damage to the parchment. The script is dense and appears to be a form of Latin or a related medieval language. The left column begins with a large initial letter, possibly 'S' or 'C', followed by several lines of text. The right column also contains several lines of text, though the beginning is less distinct. The overall appearance is that of an ancient, well-used and perhaps damaged document.
